

“Automated Recruitment and Hiring”

Basic Services:

Set up a local phone number in or near your area where candidates can call and get job-related information via an Interactive Voice Response System (IVR).

No more taking calls from applicants.

Applicants can also obtain the same information by sending SMS/MMS text messages.

Create a web form in our software system for your potential candidates to self-register. No more printing CVs. No more hundreds of emails to read.

Electronic application form. Always smart phone friendly.

A dedicated number and web address to apply is published in the Department of Labor website.

You can screen candidates based on your selection criteria (example: US citizen or H2A/B applicant, experience with A-type ladder, at least 60% English, etc.).

We provide you a list of the top applicants. You make the hiring decision.

Advantages

- "Leave the cobbler stick to his last." You do what you do best, and we do what we do best. You take care of your business, and we take care of the recruitment and screening.
- Replace your in-house application process with this package.
- You don't need to have two or more employees handling phone or email inquiries.
- You can free up your employees' time to concentrate on your company.
- No more phone calls to take or messages to respond to.
- Say goodbye to the hundreds of emails just sitting there in your inbox.
- Some employers use this as a "shield" and get out of the drama generated when they hire/not hire a relative/friend of a current or former employee.

Fees

Package starts at $367.50. Additional options may be added for extra fees. The service is good for one calendar year (or a date range that can be agreed upon to cover 2 job seasons).
